

MINDS & HEARTS: Working with the Mind through the Heart

Challenging Behaviour in Classic Autism

Professor Tony Attwood

Brisbane, Queensland

Friday 27th October, 2017

9:30 am – 4:00 pm

Dr Michelle Garnett

Prof Tony Attwood is an international authority on Asperger's Syndrome (AS) and autism. His text "Asperger's Syndrome: A Guide for Parents and Professionals" has been translated into twenty-seven languages. His book "The Complete Guide to Asperger's Syndrome" is recognised as the leading textbook on the subject internationally. Dr Michelle Garnett has specialised in autism spectrum conditions over 20 years. She devised the world's first screening tool for AS in 1993, completed her PhD on Asperger's syndrome in 2007, and co-authored two books on teaching affection to children with AS, which were published by JKP in 2014. She is the Founder and Director of Minds & Hearts, an internationally recognised clinic in Brisbane for children and adults who have an autism spectrum condition (ASC). Michelle co-authored a book with Tony in 2016, "Exploring Depression and Beating the Blues: A CBT Self-Help Guide to Understanding and Coping with Depression in Asperger's Syndrome [ASD-Level 1]."

Tony and Michelle are clinical psychologists who together have over 60 years of experience in helping people with autism spectrum disorders. They are warm, inspiring, engaging and knowledgeable presenters.

The presentation is for:

Parents, Family Members, Health and Educational Professionals who see children and/or adolescents with Asperger's Syndrome (ASD Level 2 or 3) as part of their practice, including psychologists, teachers, teachers assistants, occupational therapists, speech pathologists, GPs, paediatric psychiatrists and paediatricians.

Workshop Description

- Strategies to develop communication skills for those who have limited speech
- The learning profile associated with classic autism and strategies to encourage the acquisition of academic and daily living skills
- The effects of social experiences and facilitating social engagement
- The sensory profile of ASD and how to accommodate sensory sensitivity
- The signs of increasing anxiety, anger or despair and how to manage and moderate emotional reactions.
